From the Personal Front

It is usually observed during Ganesh festival, there will be huge gathering or before the function, people asking for donations. Once the donations collected, a huge idol with some orchestra in the evening, which the current generation wants now a day. Later on the last day a procession with drums, dance, immersion in water and late night parties by the organizers. Nobody is bothered on how much trouble is caused due to these functions, traffic jams, electricity wastage, harassment for collection of amount, environmental hazards, and many more.

But the Ganesh festival was given a different touch during post independence and the idea of keeping Ganesh Idol and immersing in water was coined. The great three of Indian freedom - LAL BAL PAL wanted Indians to get united and thought of this unique idea of keeping ganesh in public places and organize some good cultural and patriotic function to fight for freedom.

In Jayanagar, there was a public function of Ganesh. It was a mammoth ganesh being kept and there were cultural programmes. It is nice to see people promoting our culture and more over the artists whom they presented attracted my attention. It was a bharatanatyam function, I was watching it.

After the dance, which I was watching, completed, the artists were struggling to exit from stage. I was wondering what was wrong, the comphere immediately announces that all artists were blind and asked us to applaud. I was just astonished but the applaud which was beaming the entire auditorium made me realize what's happening.

The complements to the teacher who has taken up the job of teaching blind the action. Really hats off to the entire team and the school. Also I should be thankful to the committee for enriching us that there is a institute for such physically challenged humans.

Thought for the day

" My grandfather once told me
that there are two kinds of people:
those who work and those who take the credit. He told me to try to be in the first group; there is less competition there."

Indira Gandhi

Joke of the day

Tom had this problem of getting up late in the morning and was always late for work. His boss was mad at him and threatened to fire him if he didn't do something about it.
So Tom went to his doctor who gave him a pill and told him to take it before he went to bed. Tom slept well and in fact beat the alarm in the morning by almost two hours.
He had a leisurely breakfast and drove cheerfully to work.

"Boss", he said,
" The pill actually worked!"

"That's all fine" said the boss,
" But where were you yesterday?"
